		Approved: 3/22/06

407 Removal of Student from School Area

- A. If a court order determines the custody of a child, only the person designated by that court order to have custody, or a person authorized in writing by that person, shall be entitled to remove the child from school.
- B. In the absence of a court order determining custody, either parent or legal guardian of the child, or a person authorized in writing by either parent, shall be entitled to remove the child from the school or to visit the child at school.
- C. No person shall remove a child, or visit the child in school, without the approval of the principal or someone authorized to act on the principal's behalf.
